Life Sciences Manufacturing Careers

We are 100% Life Sciences focused with a singular purpose

To help our clients provide affordable & effective treatments to patients who need it most.

Who we are

Zenith Technologies became a Cognizant company back in 2019. We are world leader in delivering GMP manufacturing software systems that secure the supply of vital treatments to patients worldwide.

Together we deliver business transformation through Life Sciences Manufacturing 4.0 architectures and solutions, covering all IT, OT and IoT applications, infrastructures and services. We have the proven capability to be a single end to end partner for Consultancy, Design Implementation, Optimisation and Support for all applications in the Life Sciences Manufacturing 4.0 stack.

We specialise in delivering and supporting Automation, MES and Digital Solutions to improve operational effectiveness. Our experience spans over 35+ technologies covering MES, DCS, PLC / SCADA, Historian, PAT, BMS, and other more niche applications.

Our offerings and career opportunities have grown significantly and there has never been a better time to join our team.
